About Daran

關於 Daran

I didn't start here. I was an engineer, clocking in like anyone else — my world was endless rounds of designing and redesigning whatever the boss wanted, until I realized what I actually wanted wasn't to complete another assignment. It was a way of seeing.

That training never left me. I compose with rational precision, then fill every frame with emotional depth — and 600+ weddings later, across the African continent, the streets of New York, the quiet of Paris, and the wedding gardens of Taipei, that's still how I work. Whether it's the humanist storytelling of Leica or the uncompromising clarity of Hasselblad, I hold the same standard for my tools as I do for the work itself.

How We Work Together

我們如何合作

I build the photography schedule around your timeline — not the other way around. Shot lists, family formals, and golden hour windows are planned with you in advance, not improvised on the day.

I arrive early, stay out of your way, and make sure nothing important happens off camera. My goal on any wedding day is for you to be able to focus entirely on running the room — not on managing me.

Cross-Cultural Experience

跨文化儀式經驗

Fluent in both — the choreography of a Western ceremony, and the formality of a Chinese tea ceremony. When a single day holds both, I treat it as one story told in two chapters, not two separate shoots.

Fifteen years photographing across Taiwan and North America means I've learned to read both traditions — not as a footnote to the other, but as equally the wedding.

Delivery & Turnaround

交件與時程

You'll receive a sneak peek within 48 hours of the wedding — a handful of images, ready to share right away. Full galleries follow within 45 days, delivered in high-resolution JPEG, ready for both print and digital use.

I keep you posted as things move along. You won't need to follow up for updates.

Usage & Licensing

使用授權

Planners are welcome to use gallery images for portfolio and submission purposes — simply let me know, and credit Daran Wu Photography. That's all it takes.

Just two things:

1. Let me know before you use the images
2. Credit “Daran Wu Photography”

Submission Assistance

投稿協助

If you're submitting to a publication, I'm happy to help — coordinating on captions, credits, and providing any additional images that might help the feature.
